ABOUT THE SEMINAR

Quality at all level is the concern of the present day education. The concerns of quality in education has the basis mainly with teacher potentialities. The teacher educator has to take up the task of empowering the teachers along with empowering himself/herself. The recent technological developments and the drastic changes in the societal expectations are continuously posing challenges to the teachers at all levels. Especially the Elementary, Secondary and Higher Secondary areas of Education demand a lot from the teachers. Despite of several attempts in coping up with these challenges they remain unfulfilled and increasing every now and then. This seems to be the right time to think again and again about empowering the teachers to meet these challenges at different levels of education. This seminar focuses mainly on such issues with the following sub themes :

1. Trends of quality improvement in school education
2. Teacher training issues and challenges
3. Research trends in teacher education.
4. Methods and strategies of teacher empowerment.
