

Seminar News to UNIVERSITY NEWS Weekly Paper

Kumadvathi College of Education, Shikaripura (Karnataka State) has organized National Seminar on, Teacher Empowerment for Quality Education ; Trends and Challenges on 7th and 8th May, 2012. The seminar was inaugurated By Smt. S.Y. Umadevi, Member, Governing Council, PESITM, Shivamogga. Prof Kumaran D, Former Professor and Head, Department of Education, University of Madras, has presented Key Note Address. He suggested to redesign the teacher education curriculum in terms of content, pedagogy and Practice Teaching. A Book containing papers presented by the participants in the seminar was also released.

Papers on different themes i) Trends on Quality Education in School Education ii) Teacher Training – Issues and Challenges iii) Methods and Strategies of Teacher Empowerment (iv) Research Trends in Teacher Education were presented in the seminar. Dr. S. S. Patil, Dean, Faculty of Education and Chairman, Department of P.G. Studies and Research in Education, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta spoke on the topic “Teacher Training – Issues and Challenges. Prof Raj Mouli, Department of Studies in Education, Dr. Ambedkar Open University, Hyderabad Spoke on the Methods and Strategies of Teacher Empowerment.

On 8th March Valedictory address was delivered by Dr. S. S. Patil, Dean, Faculty of Education and Chairman, Department of P.G. Studies and Research in Education, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta. Mrs. Tejaswini Raghavendra, Director of Swamy Vivekananda Vidya Samsthe (R), Shikaripura Presided over the function. Principal Dr. Jayashree V. Rakkasagi who is also the seminar Director was present during the occasion.

Totally more than 150 participants from Karnataka, Kerala, Goa, Tamilnadu, Punjab, Utter Pradesh states attended the seminar

A Brief Report of National Seminar

Very Good afternoon my dear esteemed audience,

I am here to give a brief note of Two day national seminar on Teacher Empowerment for Quality Education : Trends and Challenges.

Kumadvathi College of Ecuation, Shikaripura (Karnataka State) has organized National Seminar on Teacher Empowerment for Quality Education : Trends and Challenges on 7th and 8th May, 2012. The seminar was inaugurated By Smt. S.Y. Umadevi, Member, Governing Council, PESITM, Shivamogga. Prof Kumaran D, Former Professor and Head, Department of Education, University of Madras, has presented Key Note Address. In his Key note Address he suggested to redesigned the teacher education curriculum in terms of content, pedagogy and Practice Teaching.

Prof Raj Mouli, Department of Studies in Education, Dr. Ambedkar Open University, Hyderabad Spoke on the Topic Methods and Strategies of Teacher Empowerment.

In the seminar a book containing 129 Papers presented by authors was released. Totally 285 participants from Karnataka, Kerala, Goa, Tamilnadu, Punjab, Utter Pradesh were attended the seminar.

The participants presented a paper on different themes

In Theme 1 : Trends on quality education in School Education 42 papers were presented.

In Theme 2 : Teacher training – Issues and Challenges 38 Papers were presented.

In Theme 3 : Methods and Strategies of Teacher Empowerment 30 Papers were presented.

In Theme 4 : Research Trends in Teacher Education 40 Papers were presented.

I feel Privileged to convey the grand success of this Two day nation seminar to all the participants.

Thanking you all