

A Brief Report of State Level Workshop

Very Good evening my dear esteemed audience,

I am here to give a brief note of Two day state level workshop on “Communication skills for effective teaching”.

Kumadvathi college of education, Shikaripura has organised A Two day State level workshop on “Communication skills for effective teaching” on 5th and 6th April 2014. The workshop was Inaugurated by Smt. Umadevi S.Y., Governing Council Member, PESITM, Shivamogga. In her presidential speech madam has expressed that teaching is a noblest profession of all the professions and she also said that there is a need to inculcate modern technology in our teachings to enhance the quality of our education system.

Prof. Rajendra chenni, Professor of English, Department of English, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta has presented keynote address. He suggested that, in this modern world, along with the mother tongue, English language is a necessity to lead a life. At the same time he also expressed that learning must be continues and there is a need to formulate novel ideas to enrich our education system.

Dr. S. S. Patil, Chairman and associate professor, department of post graduate studies and research in education as well as workshop advisor in his chief guest speech said that, communication skills have helped the individuals to compete at the global level.

After the keynote address three sessions were conducted. The first session was headed by Mr. Francis D'souza on the topic “Role of Language skills and vocabulary in language learning”. Second session was headed by Prof. David Bond on the topic “Rhythm, Stress, Pause and Intonation in English Phonetics” and Third session was headed by Mr. Francis D’souza on the Topic “Illustration of various types of tenses and uses of modal Auxiliary verbs”

On 6th April four practical sessions were conducted and the moderators of the sessions were Mr. Francis D’souza, Mrs. Reshma Andrews and Miss. Diksha Kamath on topics like 1. Group Discussion 2. Face to Face Session 3. Presentation Session 4. Role play and National Festival Celebration.

In evening valedictory address was given by Dr. Ramprasad, Associate professor, Department of English, Kuvempu University, Shankaraghatta

Mrs. Tejaswini Raghavendra, Director of Swamy Vivekananda vidya Samsthe (R), Shikaripura has presided over the function.

Dr. S. S. Patil, Chairman and Associate Professor, department of post graduate studies and research in education as well as workshop advisor was also present in the function.

Principal, Dr. Jayashree V. R. who is also co-ordinator of the workshop was present during the occasion.

Totally 250 participants from various educational institutions have attended the workshop.

I feel privileged to convey the grand success of this two day workshop to all the participants. Thank you all